

DAVID YAMANE

DEPARTMENTAL SERVICE

Advising

Honors Thesis Chair (Kayla Landers, 2007-08; Teresa Blake, 2007-08)

Honors Thesis Committee (Emily Culp, 2005)

Presentation on Research to Honors Students (Fall 2006)

Major Advising (24 students from 2005-present)

Committee Service

Ad Hoc Curriculum Committee (2006)

Speaker's Committee (2005-2006)

*Currently working with Charles Longino (sociology department) and Lynn Neal (religion department) to bring David Bromley, an expert on new religious movements and religious intolerance from Virginia Commonwealth University, to campus in the spring to teach and lecture.

Outreach

Wake Forest Campus Day Sociology Department Representative (2006)